Spring 2024

To Him be glory in the Church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations, forever and ever. Amen.

Spring greetings from the Netherlands! We write rejoicing that we have the privilege to serve the Lord's people primarily in the academy, knowing these students will go back to their home countries to serve in their local churches, among other ministries. They will work to bring God glory in many local gatherings of His Church in many lands.

A busy time, as always A two year project to publish the theses of two Tyndale alumni has come to print. The theses of two brothers from Romania treated translational issues in the Romanian Bible to make a more accurate text as well as a proper understanding of justification. Their work also has helped with a new Romanian Bible commentary, one which is not merely a translation from another modern culture and language. Training believers for this type of important technical work is just some of Tyndale's ministry, and Tom is thrilled to be part of this work.

Mentoring at the seminary is going well. The three men with whom Tom works have grown noticeably as their second or third year at the seminary comes to an end. Please pray for Filip, Amoon, and Jovens as they carry on.

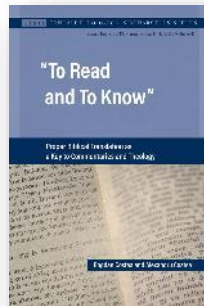

Personal notes

The end of 2023 and beginning of 2024 has seen more physical challenges than is ideal. Another bout of Covid as well as the regular flu sapped the energy of both Tom and Patti. Thankfully, Tom was able to continue teaching at the seminary even when he had the flu since the illness was rampant on both sides of the podium. Such is life in a tightknit community such as Tyndale. We share. 😊 We praise the Lord that Patti's macular degeneration has not gotten worse, and her eyesight even has recovered a bit in one eye. Please pray for us for the strength we need day by day.

With thankful hearts

We continue to thank the Lord for His provision for our material needs via the believers who read this newsletter. We could not remain in Europe and continue our service here without the faithfulness of the Lord's people.

Prayer Points

Please pray . . .

For God's hand of strength and grace for Tyndale's alumni in Ukraine as they do relief work, and in Myanmar as they help widows as well as teach orphans and college students.

For the students and faculty of Tyndale as the end of the spring term with its papers and exams rapidly is approaching.

For needed daily strength for both Tom and Patti as they minister in the Netherlands.

Praise!

The second volume of the Tyndale Theological Seminary Theses Series, a series that Tom edits, has come to print. Please pray this volume by two Brethren alumni will be used of the Lord.
